

HOW THE WEST WON HOLLYWOOD

We'll always love Noir L.A. and Wild West mesas, but here are 10 new cinematic hot spots to add to the list of must-see movie locales.

1 "HOLLYWOOD NORTH" Vancouver, B.C., earned this moniker for all the movies shot here. On Location's tours shuttle through Gastown and Yaletown for a peek at film sets, which could include the new Godzilla. $100 U.S.; onlocationtoursvancouver.com

2 PORTLANDIA ON THE BIG SCREEN In this year's C.O.G., the first big-screen adaptation of David Sedaris's essays, Sedaris's character hawks Oregon-shaped clocks at a Portland craft fair. You won't find those at the city's Crafty Wonderland shop, but you will find Oregon-shaped pillows among the handmade goods. craftywonderland.com

3 THE GODFATHER IN WINE COUNTRY The movie gallery at the Francis Ford Coppola Winery in Geyserville, California, includes two floors of relics like Don Corleone's desk from The Godfather and Coppola's Oscar for the 1972 film. franciscoppolawinery.com

4 MAY THE FORCE BE IN S.F. Get an inside look at the movie-maker's craft at the Walt Disney Family Museum's exhibit The Magic Behind Stop Motion Animation, which features a replica of a Star Wars AT-AT. $20; through Apr 28; waltdisney.org

5 DEADWOOD LIVES In the oak-dotted hills of Santa Clarita, about 40 minutes northwest of Hollywood, movie ranches provide the backdrop for westerns old and new. At Melody Ranch Studio's museum, you can see cool memorabilia from Wyatt Earp to the more recent Deadwood. melodyranchstudio.com

6 HERE'S STANLEY! L.A. County Museum of Art's Stanley Kubrick exhibit includes his photography from his Look magazine days, production sketches, screenplays, and an angry letter from a pastor condemning Lolita. Through Jun 30; $20; lacma.org

7 MOVIE MAKING, MONTANA-STYLE Add Glacier National Park to your summer road-trip itinerary so you can catch two of the glaciers tracked for the Oscar-buzzy doc Chasing Ice... before they melt. nps.gov/glac

8 CLASSIC WESTERN Experience the Tetons' movie-worthy winter grandeur at Triangle X

Ranch; the 87-year-old guest ranch lies within Grand Teton National Park and is the only park lodging open in winter. From $140; 2-night min.; trianglerex.com

9 THE ANTI-SUNDANCE At the Telluride Film Festival, aka the Show, you won't see red carpets—though you'll see plenty of stars. The nearby campsites fill up with die-hard movie purists, and organizers keep the lineup top secret to avoid pre-fest industry frenzy. Pass from $390; Aug 29–Sep 2; telluridefilmfestival.org

10 A NEW WILD WEST This summer, Johnny Depp's Lone Ranger stirs up clouds of dust in Cimarron Canyon State Park. Strike out from Taos; the park is an hour east along scenic U.S. 64. nmparks.com

CLASSIC MOVIES OF THE WEST PICTURED ABOVE Clockwise from upper left: Twilight saga (2008–12), Olympic Peninsula, WA; A River Runs Through It (1992), Yellowstone River, MT; Close Encounters of the Third Kind (1977), Devils Tower, WY; The Searchers (1956), Monument Valley, UT; Thelma & Louise (1991), Grand Canyon, AZ; Casino (1995), Las Vegas; The Blue Dahlia (1946), Los Angeles; The Birds (1963), Bodega Bay, CA. Illustrated by Olaf Hajek.